

Saturday, 6th May 2017 from 10am until 3pm
The Victoria Hall, Akeman Street, Tring, Herts, HP23 6AA

After last year's success the Tring Job Show returns in 2017!

The Tring Job Show aims to showcase the best employment opportunities, advice, and information from a range of local companies to hundreds of residents. So join us to unite local skills and local businesses.

This is a great opportunity for you and your business to promote, advertise vacancies and share information with a large local audience. Engage in valuable face to face conversations and interactions with potential candidates to find the right person for your team.

For visitors we intend to provide a detailed insight into the local job market. During the event a range of information workshops will be held on topics such as interview skills, and social media as a tool for job seekers, all delivered by experts. The Tring Job Show will offer practical advice not only for job seekers but also for people looking to change their career and for all interested in volunteering. There will also be a CV Clinic with expert advice to all who bring along their CV on the day.

To attend the Tring Job Show there will be an exhibition stand fee of £30. Please register via the link below which will take you to our online form. We will be in touch once your booking has been received.
